Bangkok City tour

Meals included: breakfast, lunch

You'll start with a short drive to public pier to board a long-tail boat to explore Bangkok life nearby the river side. Chao Phraya River, or River of Kings, The name of the river perfectly reflects this part of the tour; you'll feel like royalty on your relaxing journey down the River of Kings! This is the reason why Bangkok is known as the 'Venice of the East', and you'll explore this nickname further on this Bangkok boat tour as you glide through the network of 'khlongs', or canals. Many of the khlongs have been filled in over the years and converted into roads. These roads have turned into little Thai communities, and as you swoop through the waters you'll discover insights into these little communities. This area of Bangkok feels like a world away from the busy streets and chaos, so this Bangkok canals tour is a welcome break from the bustling city center! Dock at a pier next to Wat Pho, another temple that is integral to the Buddhist religion in Thailand. It's home to the infamous golden reclining Buddha and is the birthplace of traditional Thai massage. This is one of the most popular things to do in Bangkok, and with our local guide to take you through the temples, you'll hear all the secret stories and local knowledge about the place.

Transfer to China town where you will have a short walk for exploring Thai-Chinese people life and their market. The original Chinese citizens were traders living in the village of Bangkok before it became the capital of the Kingdom of Siam. Along the road, it was bordered by old business buildings and warehouses, most of which are still operating today. Then take a break for lunch at local restaurant before continuing to Ayutthaya.

In the late afternoon, transfer to Ayutthaya, which was the second capital of Siam after Sukhothai, and it became one of the most powerful in Asia with over 1 million residents by AD 1700. Visit famous sights such as Wat Mahathat in the evening light feel.

Day 4 / Date: Wednesday, February 2, 2022

Chiang Mai – Chiang Rai

Meals included: breakfast, lunch

In the morning, check out and jump in a minivan to the most famous viewpoint of Chiang Mai, Doi Suthep. Head off to explore the famous temple complex of Doi Suthep. A short drive (approximately 45 minutes) along a scenic and winding mountain road brings you to an impressive 300-step Naga-guarded stairway. The rewards justify the ascent to the top, with one of the most beautiful temples in Thailand on display, not to mention the fantastic panoramic views of the city.

After that, continue to the northeast province of Thailand, Chiang Rai. Drive through a windy road and stop for lunch. Before reaching Chiang Rai city, we'll visit the amazing temple Wat Rong Kun, known as the White Temple. Wat Rong Khun has an interesting story. It fell into disrepair in the late 1990s and was 'inherited' by a local artist, who took on the task of rebuilding it at his own expense; he's spent nearly a million pounds into the work so far. He wants the area next to the temple to be a centre for Buddhist learnings. Wat Rong Kun is pretty, intricate and elegant and the work is not expected to be completed until 2070.

Included Activities

- Doi Suthep
- Wat Rong Khun

Chiang Rai

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

After breakfast, transfer to visit the point of the Golden Triangle, where the Thailand, Myanmar and Laos borders meet. Stop at the border town of Mae Sai (approximately 1.5 hours), the most northern town in all of Thailand. It's a great place to do some souvenir shopping; full of colourful shops stacked with Myanmar lacquerware, gems, jade and other goods from Laos and China, all at some of the best prices around! Enjoy lunch overlooking the mighty Mekong River and then pay a visit to the House of Opium Museum for a deeper insight into opium culture and this area's problematic, drug-filled past.

This afternoon climb on board of a longtail boat and travel on the Mekong River to the old city of Chiang Saen, the ancient capital of the Lanna Kingdom. On the way there you'll have the chance to set a foot into Laos. Chiang Saen is surrounded on three sides by impressive ramparts, with the Mekong forming the fourth wall. Ruins lie around this charming one-street market town of quiet wooden shophouses. The town is also famous for the local rice whiskey sold from distilleries on the banks of the river.

Head back to town and explore Chiang Rai Night Bazaar, the former center of the Lanna and other cultures. Marvel at a variety of crafts and souvenirs from Lanna to Lue, Lowland Thais and hill tribes, such as carpets, curtains, scarves, silk, bags, or jewelry.

➔ Entry Requirements to Thailand:

Before booking the tour, make sure that you meet any potential visa or vaccination requirements!

You'll find official and up-to-date info on the website of your foreign ministry, the embassy of your country in Thailand, or at a Thai embassy within your country, for instance.

You can also search for info for ex. via Google - make sure to select official and trustworthy sources:

<https://www.google.com/search?q=Entry+requirements+to+Thailand>

(right mouse click to open the link in a new window!)

➔ Practical Information on International Flights and Individually Extended Stays:

We didn't include international flights in the tour, so that you can book your preferred flights and class from wherever you want and for the exact dates you prefer. Here's some practical advice:

- Don't book your flights before the tour is confirmed (unless you want to fly to Thailand independently of this tour, or unless you accept potential flight cancellation fees)
- Take care to book a flight that arrives in time (flights might not arrive before the next day!)
- You'll easily find cheap (and comfy) flights using our flight search:
<https://www.solotravel.cc/en/flights/> - in German: <https://www.solotravel.cc/flugsuche/>
(right mouse click to open the links in a new window!)
- Consider paying a bit more for direct flights, a cancelable or changeable fee, a better class, or more convenient departure and arrival times!
- You'll also find neat and easily affordable hotels for an extended stay using our hotel search:
<https://www.solotravel.cc/en/hotels/> - in German: <https://www.solotravel.cc/hotels/>
- For transfers within Thailand (like boat transfers to nearby islands or the mainland), check out our various transfer search options (they're probably also bookable at one of the many local travel agencies, or eventually directly at the hotel reception):
<https://www.solotravel.cc/en/transfers/> - in German: <https://www.solotravel.cc/transfers/>

➔ Practical Information on Luggage:

What you need to bring will vary according to the trip style you have chosen, the countries you are visiting and when you are travelling. Generally speaking, we recommend you pack as lightly as possible and make sure that you are able to carry and lift your own luggage, and walk with it for short distances or up or down a flight of stairs. Our travellers usually find the smaller their luggage is, the more they enjoy the trip not having to worry about carrying heavy bags! Aim to keep your main luggage under 15kg.

Many travellers carry their luggage in a backpack, although an overnight bag with a shoulder strap

Contact us:
T: +44 (0) 203 308 9763
E: groupsuk@intrepidtravel.com

would suffice if you travel lightly. Smaller suitcases or backpacks with wheels are convenient although we recommend your bag has carry straps or handles.

If you are taking overnight trains, or primarily using public transport then the smaller your luggage the easier it will be to store under or above bunks.

A lockable bag or small padlock will be useful especially when travelling on public transportation as well.

You'll also need a day pack/bag to carry water, camera, and jacket etc. when you're exploring during the day.

Below we have listed the essentials for this trip:

If you fail to join a trip, join it after departure, or leave it prior to its completion, no refund will be made. The above cancellation terms are in addition to fees which may be levied by accommodation providers, travel agents or third-party tour and transport operator fees.

Cancellation by you due to Unavoidable and Extraordinary Circumstances:

You have the right to cancel your confirmed holiday before departure without paying a cancellation charge in the event of "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances" occurring at your holiday destination or its immediate vicinity and significantly affecting the performance of the holiday or significantly affecting the transport arrangements to the destination. - (b) having a refund of monies paid.

We will tell you the procedure for making your choice. Please read any notification carefully and respond promptly as if you do not respond to us within the timescale given your booking may be cancelled.

- it does not have an expiry date and may be applied towards any other available trip offered by us;
- excludes flights or insurance as they will have their own booking conditions.

If you choose to accept a refund:

- (a) we will provide a full refund of your travel insurance premiums if you paid them to us and can show that you are unable to transfer or reuse your policy;

Contact us:
T: +44 (0) 203 308 9763
E: groupsuk@intrepidtravel.com

(b) we will pay reasonable compensation except where the cancellation is due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances, which means a situation beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken.

We are not responsible for any incidental expenses that you may have incurred as a result of your booking including but not limited to visas, vaccinations, travel insurance excess or non-refundable flights.

Booking amendments and transfers of bookings:

Transfers to a third party are only permitted when operationally possible and where the transferee meets all the requirements in relation to the trip. Certain fees may apply. Please note that there may be addition to any charges levied by hotels, ground operators or airlines. Prices are set annually as defined in clause 5 above. No amendments are permitted to your booking within 21 days of departure.

If you or any member of your party is prevented from travelling, that person(s) may transfer their place to someone else, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) that person is introduced by you and satisfies all the conditions applicable to the holiday;
- (b) we are notified not less than 7 days before departure;
- (c) you pay any outstanding balance payment, as well as any additional fees, charges or other costs arising from the transfer; and
- (d) the transferee agrees to these booking conditions and all other terms of the contract between us.

You and the transferee remain jointly and severally liable for payment of all sums. If you are unable to find a replacement, any cancellation charges as set out in clause 7 (Cancellation by you) will apply in order to cover our estimated costs. Otherwise, no refunds will be given for passengers not travelling or for unused services.

Amendments to any other arrangements made in conjunction with your trip may incur additional charges levied by hotels, ground operators or airlines.

Important Note: Certain arrangements may not be amended or transferred after they have been confirmed and any alteration could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements.
